Army Orders.—April, 1914.

National Insurance Acts, 1911-1913.

A.O. 94.

93
807 (I.) Maternity Benefit.—1. Maternity benefit (thirty shillings) is payable to the wife of an insured soldier, whether borne on the married establishment or not, and whether the soldier is serving in or out of the United Kingdom, provided that 26 weekly contributions have been paid by and in respect of him at the time when the confinement takes place and that he is still insured.

1914.

750 2. Maternity benefit is the mother's benefit and can only be paid to the husband if he holds his wife's authority to receive it on her behalf, in which case his receipt will be a sufficient discharge. If the benefit is paid to the husband, he should pay it to his wife.

3. If during her confinement a soldier's wife is accommodated in a military or other hospital, or an infirmary or any institution supported by any public authority, or out of any public funds, or by a charity, or by voluntary contributions, maternity benefit is not payable until she leaves the hospital or institution, but will then be payable to her.

4. The wife of a soldier who is a member of an approved society will claim the benefit from the society concerned, in accordance with its rules. This is a matter of personal arrangement between the soldier and his society.

5. The wife of a soldier whose contributions are paid into the Navy and Army Fund will claim the benefit on Army Form O 1834, as instructed below.

(a.) Soldiers on the married establishment—

(i.) If the husband and wife are both resident either in the United Kingdom or at a station abroad, she will forward Army Form O 1834, completed so far as she is concerned, to the officer commanding the company &c., in which her husband is serving. That officer, if satisfied that the claim is in order, will pay the benefit and charge the amount in Form 3 of the pay and mess book, or in the general state of the pay list in cases in which the pay and mess book is not used, supporting the entry in each case by Army Form O 1834 and the payee's receipt.

(ii.) If the wife is residing in the United Kingdom, while her husband is serving at a station abroad, she will forward Army Form O 1834, completed so far as she is concerned, to the paymaster from whom she receives her allotment of pay and separation allowance. If satisfied that the claim is in order, the paymaster will pay the benefit, and charge the amount to his maternity benefit suspense account (see paragraph 7).

(b.) Soldiers not on the married establishment—

(i.) If the husband and wife are both resident either in the United Kingdom or at a station abroad, she will forward Army Form O 1834, completed so far as she is concerned, to the paymaster of the unit in which her husband is serving.

(ii.) If the wife of a soldier is residing in the United Kingdom while her husband is serving at a station abroad, she will forward Army Form O 1834 completed so far as she is concerned, to the paymaster paying the pensioners and reservists of the unit to which her husband belongs.

In either case—(b) (i.) or (b) (ii.)—the paymaster will, if satisfied that the claim is in order, pay the benefit, and charge the amount as directed in paragraph 7 if at home, and in paragraph 8 if abroad.

(c) The wife of a soldier, whether on the married establishment or not, who is serving outside the United Kingdom under the government of India, the government of one of the self-governing dominions, or the government of a crown colony or protectorate, or under a department of state other than the War Department, will, if residing abroad with her husband, claim the benefit as instructed by the government or department concerned. If residing in the United Kingdom she will claim the benefit from the paymaster paying the pensioners and reservists of the unit to which her husband belongs, except in the case of the wives of Indian departmental warrant officers, and of warrant officers and soldiers on the Indian unattached list, who will claim the benefit from the India Office.

6. In all cases the officer (whether company, &c., commander or paymaster) who actually pays the benefit will sign the certificate at E. of Army Form O 1834, and is responsible for satisfying himself that the claimant is the wife of the soldier in question, that the soldier is a contributor to the Navy and Army Fund, and that 26 weekly contributions have been paid by and in respect of him. If the pay list or pay and mess book is not available, information as to the number of contributions paid should be obtained from the Secretary, National Health Insurance Commission, 29, Queen Anne's Gate, London, S.W., to whom reference should also be made if any doubt arises as to whether the soldier is a contributor to the Fund or not. When such reference is made the full name, rank, regimental number, and unit of the soldier should invariably be stated.

A.O. 94

7. All payments of maternity benefit made at home will be recorded by the paymaster concerned in a maternity benefit suspense account, which will be cleared as recovery is made from the Navy and Army Fund. Paymasters at home will render claims monthly to the Secretary, National Health Insurance Commission, 29, Queen Anne's Gate, London, S.W. The Army Forms O 1834 and the receipts of the payees will be annexed to the claims in support.

8. Payments made at stations outside the United Kingdom will be charged in the general state under the heading "N.H.I.C. Maternity Benefits, N. and A.F.," and will be supported by the receipted Army Forms O 1834. In these cases recovery from the Navy and Army Fund will be made at the War Office, and not by paymasters.

9. Army Form O 1834 may be obtained on application from the officer commanding the company, &c., or from the paymaster of the unit. A distribution of this form will be made to all units as soon as supplies are available for issue. Other requirements should be indented for in the usual way.

10. Officers commanding companies, &c., will bring these instructions to the notice of the soldiers serving under them. It is essential that all soldiers should ensure that their wives are fully acquainted with the procedure to be followed when claiming maternity benefit.

11. Previous instructions on this subject are hereby cancelled.

(II.) Soldiers employed under the Governments of Crown Colonies and Protectorates.—The cards of all soldiers who enter into employment under a crown colony or protectorate on and after 1st April, 1914, will be forwarded as soon as possible to the Crown Agents for the Colonies, Whitehall Gardens, London, S.W., who will arrange for the continuance of insurance during the period of such employment. Paragraph 13 of Special Army Order, dated 27th June, 1912 (Army Order 197 (iii.) of 1912), should be amended accordingly

Royal Engineers—Army Signal Service—Expeditionary Force—Organization.—1. With reference to the instructions issued with Army Order 120 of 1912, and to Army Order 170 of 1912, it has been decided to reorganize the signal units allotted as army troops in war and peace as follows :—

A.O. 107.

(a.) War Organization.

(i.) Instead of "A," "B," "C," "D," and "E" Signal Companies, the signal units for the army troops will consist of—

- (1.) A general headquarters signal company.
- (2.) Army headquarters signal companies.

These units will be allotted as army troops with general headquarters and with armies respectively, and each will be composed of a headquarters and as many air-line, cable and wireless sections as may be required.

(ii.) The means of communication available with, and the normal duties of, these units are given in Appendix I., Field Service Regulations, Part I. (as amended by Army Order 54 of 1914).

(b.) Peace Organization.

Instead of "A," "B" and "E" Signal Companies, the following signal units will be maintained in peace to provide the nucleus of, and to train the personnel for, the signal units referred to above :—

- "A" Signal Company.
- "B" Signal Company.

In consequence "E" Signal Company (Wireless) will be absorbed as a wireless section into "A" Signal Company.

2. Instead of the 6th and 7th Signal Troops formerly allotted to mounted brigades, a 5th Signal Troop will
